- understand our legal obligations when working with children or vulnerable adults and have the relevant Enhanced DBS check
- be fully committed to the principles of equal opportunities and human rights

What Musical Walkabout CIC cannot do

We are here to support participants in their musical development:

- we are not able to escort participants to or from the venues that we are working in
- we are not able to administer medication or be responsible for individual medical or support needs
- Our services do not constitute medical or clinical advice or counselling.

- Participants are therefore required to attend sessions with a family member to support them during the session if required, and we warmly invite staff to join in

Please note; Music can understandably bring up memories and emotions for us all. If you feel affected emotionally during a session, please feel free to take time to reflect during or after a session, as and when you need to.
